

Historical Mexican Gold Bonds Wanted - Urgent (E)

Two European Banks are presently buying 1913 & 1930 (Tesoro) Historical Mexican Gold Bonds plus Brazilian Treasury Notes (LTN). Reference attached scans.

An authorized/registered 'Depository' in California represents Buyer(s). Bonds must be deposited 'in safekeeping' in the Depository vaults for authentication/ purchase. Safekeeping Receipts are issued for each lot of Bond deposited. These are 'Bearer' Bonds. The information in this overview may change at any time.

The Procedure is as follows:

1. This is a 'private' transaction re 'Historical Bonds' with no verifiable value.
2. Minimum is 100 bonds for purchase. However, less than 100 will be accepted by Depository so several bond holders can go together to get the 100 minimum.
3. The following is required:
 - a) Serial numbers and scanned color copies in advance for an appointment.
 - b) Bond holder's Passport copy or Drivers License plus address and contact information to prepare the Contract and Safe Keeping Receipt.
 - c) Sales Contract prepared by Depository Officer, sent directly to bond holder.
4. Payment is 'bank to bank' by Swift to an account designated by Bond holder.

Bond holders must act quickly as this opportunity will close the end of January. Get the information in (stated in #3 above) as soon as possible to get in the queue.

For 1913 Series C '975 Peso' Bonds (net to bond holder/seller): 7M per Bond.
Consulting Fee: 700K per Bond.

For 1913, '1950 Peso' Bonds (net to bond holder/seller): Same as above.

For 1930 Bonds - All Series (net to bond holder/seller): 100K per Bond Consulting Fee: 25K per Bond.

Historical Brazilian Treasury Notes – LTNs (Letra do Tesoro Nacional) with 1.2B face value. Minimum number required is 15 – maximum 25 per contract.
