Bonds: Buying White Doves and 975's

If you have Historical Mexican Gold Backed White Dove Bonds, we have a top qualified buyer.

Their current interest are 1913, White Dove and 975 Pecos bonds. They are open to other Gold Backed bonds as well. But right now the focus is on the 1913 White Dove and 975 Pecos bonds.

They are currently buying very large quantities, into the Billions USD for specific bonds from 1913, White Dove and 975 Pecos. They are aggressively looking for more.

If you own 1913 White Dove bonds directly, we have an immediate sale for you. You will need to provide for us the standard photocopy front and back, include coupons and serial numbers.

You can put a large red X over the copies you send stating copies, but we will need all of the aforementioned.

If you are the registered or contracted agent, or mandate (a foreign wording) we will need the same, as well as your agreement with the bond owner.

If you know someone that knows someone with the bonds, we will have to deal direct with the actual owner, will sign a mutual NDA's

We have other buyers for other Mexican and non Mexican bonds. In the case you have bonds of another kind, we might have a buyer for them.

The best way to see if we have a buyer on non 1913 bonds of Mexican or any nationality is to have a an inventory list and fill in the form at the contacts page.

In closing, please state clearly if you are a direct owner, owner rep with a contract, or you are in a broker chain.

Thank you and please make sure what ever you send in is real and available for an immediate sale, which means you are willing to fill out all documents required to make it happen in a timely way. We don't have time to waste.

Thank you and be safe in all your investment endeavors.
