Holder to provide front & back scanned copies of two Bonds of 'each type' being submitted plus a list (in sequence) of the bond serial numbers.

If the Buyer wants to purchase these bonds, they instruct their law firm to issue a 'Letter of Intent' on their letterhead stating the price and commission they will pay for the bonds submitted. The LOI includes an 'MFPA' with Buyer's law firm as Paymaster.

The Buyer's law firm sends the LOI/MFPA to the Seller's law firm (or 'legally' authorized representative). The LOI is now the Contract.

The Buyers have representatives in Mexico, U.S.A. and Europe. These representatives will go to the bond holder's law firm location once the LOI is signed back.
